Over 70 bodies have remained without burial outside the city. The police do not allow any commuuication with the infested houses. Yesterday there were 2,048 further cases throughout Spain and 849 deaths.

Ontario, 2nd—A terrible fire broke out this morning, and burned down half a mile of property. The losses, which have not yet been ascertained, must be considerable.

London, 2nd—The announcement that Lord Coleridge is about to marry a young American lady, whom he met three years ago on board a steamer while travelling to the U. States, has created the greatest sensation in London high-life.

Patagones 4th—Mr. Luis Furst, of the Proveduria, was killed in Viedma by the Gefe de Policia, Gorostiaga, who stabbed him in the stomach at a ball given by M. Davalos.

Dr. Irigoyen was proclaimed yesterday amid great enthusiasm.

It is stated that Mr. Ezequiel Vera, nephew of the late Bishop of the same name, was murdered yesterday in Canelones.

The marriage is announced shortly to take place of Doctor Valdes Garcia with Sta. de Sagrera.

THE LOAN.

Eureka—Eureka—The press of B. Ayres is at last unanimous, and every newspaper in the city approves of the conduct of the Government in rejecting the Pellegrini loan contract! To add to the unanimity of the verdict, the public of the Plate applauds to the skies the decision of the Cabinet, and President Roca and his Minister of Hacienda, Dr Pacheco, cannot far go wrong when the judgment of the whole country is so pronounced in their favor.

Let us all accept this affair as the turning point in the history of the present administration; a new departure by the Government; the turning over of a new leaf in the Contaduria of the Nation, and the building up of our progress and advancement on more solid foundations than on borrowed money and "Bonos generales."

Whatever money the Government requires to meet its obligations, can be raised in this country by means of a public works 7 per cent Home loan. Everyone who knows anything of the country will admit this, but the difficulty that surrounds the country and its Government springs from the enormous expenditure of every branch of the administration, which must now be cut down at least 50 per cent.

The question, therefore, for the country is the new Budget; all else is subterfuge and nonsense. We want the Budget reduced to 25 millions, and if General Roca effects this he even eclipses his Rio Negro expedition.

The trade of the country is so large, and its internal wealth so rapidly increasing, that if the Minister of Hacienda is as fixed in his determination to cut down the expenditure, as he was to reject the Pellegrini contract, in one year the country will right itself and return to conversion. In the year 1876 when the Plate was not one half what it is to-day, the Minister of Hacienda applied the pruning-knife to the budget and from the President's salary down to the soldiers' pay everything was reduced. Dr. Pacheco has but to follow the precedent, and all will very soon be right agair. A glance at our trade in 1876 compared with last years' returns will show the gigantic growth of our commerce since the last crisis:

Imports—

1884	94,036,144
1876	36,070,023
Increase....	57,986,121

Exports—

1884	68,029,836
1876	48.090,713
Increase....	19,939,123

With such figures before us; with a country boasting of over one hundred millions of good mestiza sheep, and over fifteen millions of cows; new hands arriving by the thousand every second day; new capital flowing into our public lands; our estancia lands, and all the thousand new enterprises starting up at all points, the Minister of Hacienda of such a country should have no difficulty in making both ends meet. Yet owing to the grossest mismanagement, our finances have become as difficult as those of Turkey or Egypt. We have the saloons of Paris crowded with Argentine Commissionaires of every calibre, and the two State Banks of the country fighting "like devils for conciliation, and hating each other for the love of country."

To reform all this, to bring the country back to a gold paying basis, to reduce the Nation's expenses and obligations within the limits of its legitimate revenue, is indeed a noble programme, and if President Roca and Dr. Pacheco effect this, the country will bless the day that the Pellegrini contract was flung into the waste paper basket of the Ministerio.

PENNANO RAILWAY.

This great and important scheme has been sent back to committee, but, from the tenor of the debate which the measure gave rise to, it appears probable that the bill will be passed, since the guarantee asked for cannot possibly begin to run for the next two years, when in the opinion of both ministers the nation will be well able to afford it.

Perhaps the most attractive feature of this measure and of the debate it gave rise to, is the insight it has given the public of the industries and trade of the remotest corner of this Republic, Organ. The speeches in Congress have thrown new light on all that distant, and we may say, forgotten country, struggling as it is to raise its head, and come to the front amongst its sister and more favoured provinces. Mr. Pennano merits every praise for the enterprise he has shown in the matter, and Congress should help him to its utmost, since we all now begin to see that Oran possesses trade, industry, and population amply sufficient to support a railway. The question of guarantee is after all but of secondary consideration, since the gain to the country by the construction of this railway, not by the Government but by a foreign joint stock company, will more than compensate the nation for any slender outlay on a 6 per cent guarantee. In the consideration of this subject Congress must always remember the immense distance of Oran from the seaboard, and while we are willing to admit that a railway in the province of Buenos Ayres needs no guarantee, we are firm in our conviction that for a railway in Oran a guarantee is absolutely necessary.

The Minister of the Interior then rose and stated that he had not learned anything, until he had taken his seat in the House, of the point under consideration but that when he heard that the construction of a railway was being discussed, his opinion was in favor of the scheme. He would defend and urge anything that would contribute to the progress and welfare of the country. His Excellency then alluded to the growth of railways in the Argentine Republic during the last two years and considered them as the principal elements of progress in the country. His attention being drawn to the present state of the railways, he said he had been favoured with certain details which would no doubt be found interesting: At the present moment a branch is being constructed to Chumbicha, and in a few months according to the report of the directors, will be completed. The branch from Frias to Santiago has been completed.

The Andine railway is almost completed, as the locomotive's whistle is now being heard in San Juan. With regard to the Central Norte Railway, the locomotive will shortly reach the province of Salta. The earthworks as far as Chilca are completed. From this point according to the law, the railway will branch off to Salta, while the main line will continue to Jujuy, running through Colos. Metan will be reached towards the end of the year, according to the report of the directors.

If the works be actively carried on, the line will reach Colos during the coming year.

According to the estimates made by the Engineers' department, with reference to the outlay for the completion of these works, a sum of 8 millions will be required to reach Salta and Jujuy from Chilca; one million and a half to reach Catamarca from Chumbicha; one million for the complementary works of the Andine Railway; and one million for works on the Central Norte. With regard to the Rioja Railway, the surveys are being made between Dean Funez and Chilecito.

The Minister of Interior concluded his speech, by inviting the Hon. Deputies to ask any questions, referring to these data, they might deem necessary.

Deputy Perez rose, and briefly stated that the Ministers having given their opinion with regard to the project under discussion, he would certainly advise the Chamber to sanction the scheme, a step that could he taken without in the least compromising the finances of the Nation. If, as the Minister of Finance stated, the treasury is to heavily burthened to be in a position to meet the obligation either during this year or the incoming one, why, cannot the Executive sanction the project as it stands, as soon as these two years have expired? There is no hurry. We should not, lose this opportunity of securing this loan, for up to this all other railway companies have applied for and obtained a guarantee of 7 o/o.

On the other hand the Hon. Deputy for Cordoba points out the necessity of discussing the continuation of the line from Oran to any harbor on the Parana. But this has nothing to do with the case in point.

The object of the present scheme is to unite the most important districts of the provinces of Jujuy and Salta with the Central Norte line. Afterwards, Oran may be connected with any harbor on the Parana, in order that Bolivia might thus find a natural outlet to the Atlantic. Both lines are distinct and can cause no injury to their reciprocal interests.

Deputy Perez continued to point out the utility and even necessity of passing the project. He dwels at some length on the wealth and resources of the provinces of Jujuy and Salta and concluded by advising the Chamber to sanction the project and state that the finances of the Nation could not suffer by this project being passed, as the Executive could accept the contract when the country has completely emerged from its present financial difficulties.

LONDON LETTER.

GENERAL GOSSIP.

(From our own Correspondent)

June 26th.

Mr. Errington has failed in his mission to Rome completely. The Pope, to the great joy of the Irish Nationalists, has appointed Dr. Walshe to be Archbishop of Dublin. Probably the fall of Mr. Gladstone may have influenced the choice. The Roman Catholics, that is the bulk of them in Ireland, were undoubtedly in favor of Dr. Walshe. With Mr. Gladstone in power, the opinions of the upper classes in the Catholic world might have been conveniently consulted, but the case is certainly different with Lord Carnarvon as Viceroy, and an Elizabethan Premier in England. His Holiness the Pope has probably foreseen what the Morning Post of to-day chooses to describe as the foreign policy of the new Government—your contemporary is "in a position to affirm that the close union between this country and the Cabinets of Berlin, Vienna and Rome, will constitute the basis of the foreign programme of the Conservative Cabinet."

Do not pay too much attention to these "affirmations." It will take Lord Salisbury some time to unravel the threads of the foreign policy of his predecessors, and to master the information, most of it unofficial, which will be placed before him at the Foreign Office. Moreover, the Post has already "affirmed" that the new Cabinet would "endorse" what the Gladstone Administration had arranged with Russia, and would accordingly make no scruples in ceding Pendjeh and confirming the settled line of frontier which Sir Peter Lumsden innocently observed, at the Geographical Society, might have been drawn a little further to the north, although his own testimony, and much other testimony now at our disposal, shows clearly that the Ameer of Afghanistan had no fixed authority or frontier in those countries whatever, and that where he could exact tribute he considered it to be his, and that was all. The next difficulty in those regions will be the Hazaras, with whom Russia seems to be intriguing.

It is to be hoped that Lord Salisbury is not now engaged in concocting another "leading article," to be issued as a circular to British Ambassadors, as he did before, as soon as he got into Downing-street. Those things do no good, and often a great deal of harm. Perhaps, after all, a French diplomatist, who knows England well, may be right in saying as he did, that "Lord Salisbury was a reed painted to represent iron, and that his administration is as likely as not to turn out more humdrum than his predecessors."

We have constantly seen lately in foreign papers that M. de Staal, the Russian Ambassador in London, had received instructions to ask Lord Salisbury for explanations regarding his recent utterances about the Russian Government. The London correspondent of the Cologne Gazette states, on the "best authority," that no such instructions have been received by M. de Staal, and that the Russian Government preferred to pass over the incident in silence.

In fact, home and foreign affairs are for the moment in quietude and a natural state of expectancy, not likely to be disturbed for some days. We hear of Sir Henry Drummond Wolff being sent as Commissioner to Egypt, and the presence of the French fleet at Alexandria looks like a demonstration.

In home affairs, by far the most interesting event to men of business, is Mr. Goschen's speech at Manchester on the Depression of Trade. The speech occupies five columns and a half of the Times of the 24th. In the same number is a short report of Mr. Giffen's paper, read at the jubilee of the Statistical Society. I intended to have sent you an epitome of both, but I find that these gentlemen are still educating themselves, and have really nothing to tell us we have not seen over and over again since the author of "Lombard-street" and the present city editor of the Times, Mr. Crump, first warned us that conditions were changing, and since "statistical abstracts" have been thumbed to death. It is gratifying to see that Mr. Goschen has educated himself so far as to find that the "appreciation of gold" is only a factor in the general question of trade depression, and not what he wanted to make us believe three years ago that it was the chief cause.

Mr. Giffen, too, seems to have learned that "averages" and "per-heads" do not teach us much, and both gentlemen, who attack the new learning in political economy, have yet to learn its very elements. Mr. Giffen, in showing that a great deal of the £1,200,000 of income, as per property and income tax returns, is not wealth, not production, and only exchange between one pocket and another, is absolutely and unconsciously quoting Marnx and assisting the Socialist propaganda, whilst Mr. Goschen's notions of Socialism being the equal division of "profits," have already excited the ridicule of the Socialist papers. "Profits," or "gains," in the vulgar banker and tradesman's notions, are not even acknowledged by Socialists as existencies in the future. Here is something in your way:—

Applications are invited for 33,000 10 per cent. Preference Shares of the Patent Antiseptic Manufacturing Company (Limited,) whose capital is £100,000, of which the first issue consists of £50,000. The company has been formed to develope and work what is stated to be a well-planned and highly remunerated mercantile enterprise, namely the manufacture of new and improved antiseptic compound patented by Aug. Breithaupt, a celebrated chemist, of Strasburg, which will preserve alike the following: Meat, fish, poultry, sausages, bacon, meat-pies, butter, cream, milk, lard, cheese, pastry, fat, oil, wines, beer, eggs, fruit, jellies, syrups, hides, blood, water, &c. The compound is said to be perfectly odourless and tasteless, and in no way, either as regards colour, taste, or oudour, affects articles treated. No refrigerator or ice is requisite. The preserving properties are stated to have been fully tested by many of the leading butchers and fishmongers in London. The compound, which is understood to be in no way injurious to health, is a powerful disinfectant, and is reported to be a cure for foot and mouth disease. The vendor, who will take £10,000 in cash and £17,000 in fully paid up Ten per Cent. Preference Shares, and £17,000 in fully paid up Ordinary Shares, will undertake to dispose of his patent process for Great Britain to this company.

PARIS LETTER.

July 4.

Although France be in republic and one-third of its motto is "equality," there are two very distinct classes in the country—one which lives by the budget, and the mass that aliments the exchequer. The first wants war and colonial expansion; the second, peace, retrenchment, reform, and kindred political fireworks. Of the population, some 37 millions—about the same as Great Britain—3 to 4 millions, or say one-tenth, live by the budget. The same proportion exists in other countries, save England, where the "devourers of taxes" are less. The "budgetivoræ," civil, military and naval, have an influence out of all proportion to their numbers. This explains why the anarchists desire to sweep away such institutions. The country, startled at the rent in the national purse, and the diminished receipts, is making its voice heard about the waste and extravagance in the nation's farthings.

It is thus that opinion has put its foot down on the colonial foible. The conquest of worthless regions, in the interest of the country, is being denounced as political Tartufferie; it is discounted as the farming of France in the interest of a few speculators. The people feel very sore about the whole Tonkin affair. The peace with China compels them, they argue, to keep the white elephant. Some correspondents of the Press at Hanoi assert that it it will require at least 25 to 30 years to organize the country, and at best it will prove a Second Algeria with this difference, that while Algeria costs the mother country 70,000,000 fr. yearly, Tonquin, being some 11,000 miles from Toulon, will be an annual drain of 150,000,000. The cheaper products of England and Germany will soon command a local monopoly, while the French "fabricants," as the Intransigeant puts it, will be left only to manufacture mourning for the families of the deceased soldiers and functionaries. Grotius is credited with the remark, that France, from its natural climatic advantages, "is the most beautiful kingdom, after heaven." Speculators never selected it as the site of the Garden of Eden, though they have Ireland, Afghan, the Soudan, and even the North Pole. Why, then, ought Frenchmen quit their paradise to be sweated to death in Tonkin, or cremated in advance at the Congo?

Rochefort's latest rocket has come down like the stick. He accused the English in Egypt of assassinating Oliver Pain. For the proofs—a matter which never occupied the ex-Lanternier a second under any circumstances—he adduces none. It is the story of the three black crows. A heard of them from B, and B from C, and the latter affirmed that he knew of no crows at all. To the credit of French journals, they have scouted Rochefort's practical joke, assert he has wound out the whole story from his inner consciousness, or has for his informant some Mrs Harris, as had Sally Gamp. In June, 1869, when the unfortunate Maximilian was shot at Queratan, Rochefort—who then was "littérateur," not politician—invented a description of the execution, alleging that the facts arrived by a special coasting vessel and thence by an Atlantic liner, for the telegraph was only then in its swaddling clothes. It created a sensation; that was all Rochefort wanted. Now he has Anglophobia on the brain, and that malady is pretty general in France, but will never go beyond the barking stage.

Some Republican journalists propose to take an action against "Mr Wolseley"—perhaps before the "Lord Chief Baron"—for placing a price on Pain's head. The more prudent suggest, leave him to his own troubled conscience and posterity. Is Pain yet dead? Has he fallen as often as Kassala? Perhaps he has escaped South, like Gordon Pacha. Mayhap he never reached the Mahdi's lines, though Rochefort said some time ago that Pain had become Mussulman, and had received the usual provision of wines. In all seriousness, it would be well to know if the madcap be still in the flesh, for the sake of his destitute wife and infants. If he failed in his "ride" to Khartoum, or experienced difficulty as field post for the Mahdi, or came to grief as a Special Correspondent, why he has only himself to blame.

Rochefort is more at home in drafting a political programme for the coming elections. Of all such Salmagundis that this event and the tropical heat, has so far produced, his, strange to say, is alone comprehensible. He demands the abolition of the Senate, of the Presidentship of the Republic, of the connection between church and State, of the army, etc. In a word, he parodies the proposed law of a satinist under the convention, consisting of only two articles; number one: "Nothing exists"; number two: "Nobody is entrusted to execute the decree". Rochefort adds on a few kickshaws: as the State to become nurse for all children in want of such—Rousseau left the rearing of his children to the care of the parish to bring up, while he went botanizing—and to make every townsland find work for its unemployed or feed them. As Rochefort is to enter the next parliament, it is to be hoped he will try all this sort of thing on with his colleagues.

The Lyon's silk-weavers are in a very distressed condition; they have resorted to a strike, the only medicine now seemingly for such misery. It is painful that these intelligent workmen cannot earn even the half of an ordinary laborer's daily wage. But formerly when they gained 8 frs. per day, they only worked three days a week, spending the others in pleasure. The grass-hoppers danced in summer, they made no provision for the winter; but those ants that acted otherwise are today fabricants, on their own account. However, the Lyons silk trade is being killed by foreign competition; Crefield, England, and Milan, can undersell Lyons goods even in France, despite the import duty. Judge of the odds in their favor then in the foreign market. The raw material is more expensive for the Lyons manufacturer; hence, why the Government intends lowering the duty on threads, for mixed silks. But that act will open up the whole question of protection, about which republicans are as much divided as on the policy of separation of church from State.

The new English ministry being ranked as German in its sympathies, is naturally not relished here. It is to be hoped, Lord Salisbury, whether his reign be long or short, will speak up, and speak clearly. It is in the interests of the peace and well-being of the world that he should do so. Let him have no see-saw policy; as a minimum of lucidity, may he announce what he will not do and stick to it. He has to assure France she cannot re-occupy the political position she gratuitously forfeited in Egypt, and that the English cannot be particular in dates, as to their departure. Plain speaking and a readiness to act will do Russia good.

The feeling exists that England is not now so much interested in the Suez Canal as formerly. Lord Wolesley's opinion is coming to the front; the readiness with which the canal can be obstructed by a barge filled with stones to say nothing of dredges, or a torpedo well-exploded, could destroy the route. A prudent merchant does not place all his eggs in one basket; and the mouse that trusts to one poor hole is not a mouse of any soul. This, the French note, explains why England is re-establishing the Cape route to the East, and pushing on the Canadian Pacific railway. The latter has the advantage of passing through no foreign territory, and the Dominion can be a veritable nursery bed for the navy, since 60,000 men and lads are annually engaged in fishing and the coasting trade.

UNKNOWN GERMANY.

Many people fancy that France occupies and satisfies the German capacity for hatred. But the German capacity for hatred is not so limited, nor is France hated. True hate and true contempt are for different objects. The German sees nothing now in France to envy or to fear. He expects another war with France, but without questioning who will be the victor he only regrets past clemency, and discusses only what crushing punishment he shall next time inflict upon his restless neighbour. The French used to call themselves the great nation; he says now we are the great nation. I am not generalising—summing up the general tendency of talk. I have actually heard the thing said nakedly, and more than once, in a mixed company. It is accepted without question that France is falling, her population decreasing, her industries becoming bankrupt. The army, it is true, must be kept at its high state of efficiency, not merely as a security that the next victory will be quick as well as complete, but because the army is the representative German institution. It continues to represent the empire which it has made, and as a member of it the German takes his share in the government of the country. His interest in the proceedings of the Reichstag are but feeble, and they are miserably reported, for the Reichstag is a nerveless body, making a show of independence in debate merely to vote in the end as the Government will have it vote; at times only proving its servility by insubordination over trifles. Its proceedings, indeed, stand in characteristic opposition to those of our own Parliament. In its last session it has found full and delightful employment in subsidising steamship lines and raising tariffs. Nothing else has been done, but that at least, it must be confessed, has been done with national thoroughness. For the work is a work which the body of the nation has much at heart. It is one of the modes in which England may be attacked; for if England cannot be blotted out it can be impoverished and discredited.

Our insularity is a disagreable accident, but it is hoped we are not for that reason altogether invulnerable. If our commerce were successfully attacked, might not the whole edifice fall, undermined? In what proportions zeal for German welfare and the envy of English welfare have taken their part in late German colonial and commercial policy it might, perhaps, be hard to say. But it is easy to see what causes the feverish exultation over colonial acquisitions, which as colonies properly so called—a new home for the old race—have no importance. It is easy to see the cause, for no one attempts to conceal his rancorous hatred of all that is English—that rancorous hatred which is born of jealousy. To understand that hatred we must picture to ouselves a man who has at last, by a brilliant achievement, raised himself from the obscurity in which family cirtumstances and a hard fate have kept him during the best years of his life. His neighbours all around him he sees growing in wealth and influence and fame, and he, conscious of no inferior talent, must yet eat the bitter fruit of inferiority. All at once his opportunity comes; he seizes it, and in the intoxication of success he sees all the kingdoms of the world and the glory of them lying open before him. Then comes the disappointment; the doors of the great treasure-houses of the world do not fly open, and there are still competitors. He has, indeed, made a great step forward, but the others are also advancing too. They are not smaller because he is greater. But his position is a new one, and he is uneasy in it. Exaggerating both his past impotence and his present power, he is exasperated because the world goes on in its own way as before, without troubling itself much about him. And England becomes the natural object of a hatred which must find an object to hate. Dr. Johnson admitted that it was very unreasonable to hate the man who succeeded in marrying the woman whom we wish to marry, but closed the question with a "Sir, when you are disappointed you must hate some one." Now, our German, after casting about to discover the real sourse of national wealth, has discovered that it must be colonisation. England is rich and England has colonies; therefore, colonies are the source of wealth. But all the rich heiresses have already been carried off by the adventurous Englishman, and the greedy dog is inclined to dispute with even the poor ones who are rich only in expectations. And so our disappointed suitor is determined to hate some one, and to hate him with all the determination of ignorance. For our middle-class, middle-aged German is ignorant precisely in those matters which every Englishman knows. The one has been what a schoolmistress would call extremely well educated, but he has absolutely no knowledge of the world at large and conditions of life, industrial or political, unlike his own. He does not talk about such things; he does not read about such things in his newspapers.

(To be concluded)

LATEST FROM VENADO TUERTO.

July 31st, 1885.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Dear Sir,

The poor results which sheep have given out here this year, I consider a blessing in disguise, and the lesson has just come in time. Were it not for this lesson, population and stock were increasing with such unprecedented rapidity in these camps, that a great ruin would have overtaken us all.

Now I consider the progress and march of Venado Tuerto more secure. For sheep we must have at every puesto 10 or 12 squares of 'alfalfa,' and each flock should not exceed 1200, under such conditions we could save all our lambs and have a good increase. As for cows these lands are especially adapted for them, but for sheep the great difficulty is the cost of posts and wire indispensable for each puesto.

Yours most truly,

A. F. Estrugamon.

SHEEP INDUSTRY.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Dear Sir,

In your STANDARD of July 31st I notice a letter from "J. L. P.," Ayacucho, on the above subject, and in the latter part he appears to be at his wits' end to know how to cure scab; and, though he asks privately for information, I have great pleasure in making the following proposition to him, viz.:

"Select me some of his scabbiest sheep, and I will show him how to cure—free, gratis—if he will allow me to visit his estancia; or if he will select 20 scabby sheep and have them at the 'Feria Rural,' Ayacucho, at the fair there next month, I will cure them publicly, and a jury can be formed to report on same after I have left."

I fear "J. L. P." has not begun in time to cure his sheep; and he must know, as well as I can tell him, that if he cures in February he would get a full fleece at shearing, but curing now cannot bring him a full length of staple, only being within three months of shearing.

Faithfully yours,

C. P. Hayward.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

To-day the term expires for all old settlers on National lands in the XI Section to present their claims at the Minister of Hacienda's Office, or at Mr. White's office, in the department of National Engineers.

Yesterday a petition was presented to Congress in behalf of Mr. John Lelong, who is at present in Paris, but who figured prominently in Porteño circles some 20 years ago. Mr. Lelong asks for special compensation for long years of service in Europe as Argentine Immigration Agent.

Havas telegrams last night startled us all with the alarming news that cholera has re-appeared in Marseilles, whilst the news from Madrid about the cholera could not be worse. As for the news from Berlin, about a row with France, nobody credits the rumour.

We regret to announce the death of an old English resident, Mr. John B. Thorne, 79 years; he was buried on Monday in the British cemetery.

It is not to be wondered at that the weather within the last 48 hours has suddenly changed, and become very cold, as we read in the telegrams that it snowed all Monday night at Rauch, and we suppose further South.

The Procurador General Dr Don Eduardo Costa has given another very important decision respecting the Episcopal congregation in Rosario, which is now constituted into "persona juridica."

An English estanciero of Corrientes visited us yesterday. He leaves in the Hellenes for England, and has passed the last 11 years on his estancia on the river Corrientes without ever, during that long period, coming to town. He says the cattle do remarkably well up there, and estancieros have no cause of complaint; but sheep do not thrive, except on the fine camps near Curuzu Cuatia.

The latest financial news out is, that we are to have a new 7 per cent Home Loan for fifty millions. There is to be no new emission of National Bank notes. The Bill before the Deputies for the sale of the Tucuman Railway is to be passed. The squadron is to be laid up, the army reduced. All the schools and colleges in the country are to be kept open, and the Government to pay so much per head; the salaries of all employees to be reduced 10 per cent; and the Provincial Bank is to get its Bono General, guaranteeing to supply the market with five millions sterling exchange until the wool season sets in. These are a few points which a distinguished member of Congress favoured us with last night.

The death of our talented young friend and colleague, Dr. D. Alberto Navarro Viola, has caused sorrow in almost every circle; he was a young man of shining talent and in the very morning of life. He inherited all the great abilities of his distinguished father, and, although but 28 years, had risen to a distinction difficult for men of even double his years to attain. We lay an immortelle on his young grave, and condole with his friends at their severe less.

The new parcels and passenger agency is again to the fore; all difficulties with boatmen and "changadores" have been overcome, and we look forward now to a little better fair play towards this most necessary agency, and hope to see the authorities give the fullest protection to the empresario.

The biggest thing of the session will take place this evening at the English Literary Society, when a debate will be opened by Mr. R. B. Mackinnon at the rooms, on the subject of "The Political Career of the Right Hon. W. E. Gladstone, M.P. We anticipate a large and influential attendance, and doubtless considerable animation will characterize the evening's proceedings, as the discussion is full of interest and much be said for and against the policy of the "Grand Old Man," whom Lord Macaulay referred to 50 years ago as "the rising hope of the Tory party." The Committee of the Literary Society will be pleased to receive any gentlemen who may desire to attend the debate.

We learn the following on the highest authority: One of the Christy Ministrels, who performed at the English Literary Society's entertainment the other evening, asked the Hon. Secretary the following morning whether he thought "it had come off all right." The Hon. Secretary said he imagined everyone had been well pleased. The Ministrel, it appears, referred to the burnt cork preparation on his face, some traces of which were still visible about the ears and corners of the nose. Further comment is needless.

The Bolsa ball invitations were sent round yesterday; the ball is fixed for Friday 14th. The invitations are signed by 25 ladies, and if not accepted must be returned, before the ball comes off, to the treasurer, Madame Guerrico, Calle Cangallo 121, between 11 and 5 o'clock, The charge is 15 nats. Many brokers suggest that owing to the rejection of the Pellegrini loan contract, the ball should be postponed until the premium on gold is somewhat lower.

There was no news whatever, yesterday, about the rumoured fight between the Russians and Afghans; nor yet anything from Cordova about the 300 youths locked up, so we suppose both items need confirmation.

Howard Paul once circulated the following "ticket" when he was giving entertainments at the Egyptian Hall—"Admit the bearer on a wet evening. The wetter the evening the more this ticket will be admitted."

Now that the Loan is knocked on the head the busy Bs in the Bolsa feel quite lonely. The loan has been their guide, philosopher and friend for the last three months. "Surgit amari aliquid," however—an Emission of Notes. If so the country is done for. We have more faith in Dr. Pacheco, and hope and believe he will take the only right course—cut down the Budget to 25 or 30 millions, and sell the State Railways.

The religious excitement in Montevideo is calming down after the Buen Pastor affair; and several religious houses have allowed the Government officials to carry out the inspection prescribed by law without offering any opposition. So best. The senior naval officer on the Spanish station has offered one of his ships to the expelled Buen Pastor Sisters, to transport them to Buenos Ayres.

The Oasis of San Luis has a rather profane but witty parody from the Bible on the recent fizzle in Corrientes. Public writers in these regions are far too much addicted to this sort of thing.

So that distinguished old bloke Lord Coleridge is going to make a fool of himself in his old age and get married again. The American bride must have all the pluck of her country, if she has read the details of his Lordship's treatment to his only daughter when she lived under his roof. However a plucky wife and a timid daughter are too different people; and we'll back our fair American cousin to make the old gentleman a good wife.

A commercial clerk in Rosario is in 'quod' for running away with a girl. He deserves it. Such conduct is only fit for Bohemians. Commercial clerks should be as steady as rocks, or the Great Eastern in a gale.

All the Governors of provinces are flitting about like swallows or stormy petrels. Several of them are either in town or coming. The Presidential fight is nearing the critical stage.

The Britons in Rosario are subscribing to give 'Our Dan' a present on his benefit night. So say the papers up there. O. D. has had rather a hard road to travel this year, and we hope the present will be a spanker. Some say that the youthful 'empresario' is going to take the benefit of change of air without taking any benefit in Rosary. The rumour of an attempt at suicide by one of the company is revived. This is a repetition of last year's incident.

Our friend Sommer the hatter is, to use a somewhat vulgar phrase, 'coming out strong.' His shop in Calle Rivadavia is now a perfect emporium of 'altas novedades,' from white hats to black cravats and all sorts of things of all colours, shapes and sizes. Go and see them.

The opening of the Italian Exhibition at the Recoleta is fixed for November 1st. Photographs of the buildings are now to be seen in every Ausonian window in town.

There is, or was last week, some unpleasantness in Cordoba about the Lottery. Empresa refused to shuffle out the big prize, and making all kinds of excuses to shuffle out of it. So a colleague says; but we know nothing about it. Congress ought to squash every Lottery in the country, except the Capital.

"Una discreta señorita" is the new way of alluding to a maiden about to be married when any reference to loveliness or accomplishments is out of the question. Discreet girls are now so uncommonly hard to find that they ought to be able to hold their own against the 'lovely and accomplished,' who, as a rule, are not overburdened with discretion in these days.

The Capital of Rosario declares that the enthusiasm first displayed up there about the proposed Building Society has fallen off 50 per cent. We're sorry, but cannot cry.

There is shocking news from Patagones, where the Chief of Police has just murdered a man named Furst. This is by no means the first case of the kind in this country; although it reads like a joke that any Chief of Police should be guilty of murder. But such is South American life.

The Boca was all alive with the soldiers returning from Corrientes, which province seems to be in an awful state. All agree that no improvement can be expected till Governor Derqui retires into private life next year; unless something should occur in the meantime to quicken his movements in that direction.

Trovatore to-night at the Colon Theatre. A crowded house may be expected. This Escalante opera company is the only hit of the season. All the other managers have got badly scalded; cleaned out in fact.

The police pounced on another gaming house on Monday night. The players howled piteously to be let off, but it was no go. The iron Colonel's orders were peremptory. The reason gamblers show so much of the white feather when caught is that men of most respectable positions who hold their heads very high in the day-time, form a far too large proportion of the clients of the city 'hells.' Col. Bosch is doing good work. Many and many a father of a family loses in these vile dens the money that should be devoted to his wife and children; and this brings in its train robbery, fraud, dishonour and too often suicide.

More reckless and culpable public extravagance! Congress has just voted no less than 100,000 Nats. to help an Exhibition in Parana in 1887. What on earth does a place like Parana want with an Exhibition. This is no time for flinging the public money right and left in this fashion.

The National Theatre 'empresario' has reduced his prices to the lowest level compatible with two square meals a day for himself and his talented artistes. This deserves public support.

The Villarino has brought up another batch of unfortunate Indians from the South. The men (150) have been drafted into the regiments of the garrison.

The river rose, 'like a giant in his wrath,' on Monday and completely washed away the Lord Mayor's precious Basura Esplanade at the Recoleta. We're prodigiously glad.

The Drainage people and Mr Parry cannot agree about the works to be run through the latter's ground in Quilmes. The police are to be called in. Nothing can be done is this thrice-blessed country without the police. It is really a wonder that, when we are dying, the police are not called in, instead of the clergyman or the doctor, to prevent by force our 'shuffling off this mortal coil.'

The decorations of the new Bolsa for the ball on next Saturday week were begun yesterday. There is a horrid whisper that the 2500 invitations will by no means be all accepted. This was to be expected.

The farmers living near kilometre 83 on the Western Railway, have petitioned for a new station at that point, and will get it. This will relieve the pressure of traffic at Mercedes station.

A Basque swindler with a hot potatoe name, Blorogaiteada, lately tried to swindle the whole town and partido of Carhue, by passing himself off as Mr Berraondo's brother. He bought right and left lands, wool, hides, goods etc. One shrewd estanciero thought it rather strange that the Brave Biscayan never had a copper in ready cash about him. This led to enquiries, and the bubble burst.

Mr John Fox Junr., of Pergamino, sent a very stiff telegram to the Patria Argentina yesterday about an unfortunate man who was deliberately locked up in a mad-house by the authorities, but providently managed to escape.

The papers report a laughable affair about a Calle Cuyo photographer who took a customer's phiz so badly that when he went for his account the outraged citizen seized a huge revolver and threatened to shoot him, then knocked his teeth down his throat, smashing an amber cigarette holder he had between them, and finally bundled him into the street. Livid with rage, pain, and 'dignidad ofendida,' the man of collodion went to the Commissary, who told him to go 'donde corresponde,' which is a polite way of saying 'go to the——.' We pity the photographer while forced to laugh at him.

ROSSETTER'S HAIR RESTORER

This preparation, which is rapidly superseding the dangerous and poisonous compounds hitherto used as applications for the Hair, has been highly recommended by the Medical Faculty, on account of its harmless nature and gradual but invariably efficacy.

It differs from all other articles which have been hitherto offered in not being a dye to bring all heads of Hair to one uniform colour.

ROSSETTER'S Hair Restorer Absolutely Reproduces the Original Colour of THE HAIR

WHATEVER THAT MAY HAVE BEEN WHETHER AUBURN, CHESNUT, BROWN, OR JET BLACK.

It possesses, moreover, the property of removing Dandriff and other impurities from the Head, and prevents the Hair from falling off. Although it contains no oil, it imparts to the Hair the peculiar lustre and hue of youth, promoting and strengthening its growth.

The sale of this remarkable preparation is increasing rapidly, and it only requires to be known to be extensively used.

Remataremos a la mas alta postura y dinero de contado procedente de la afamada Cabaña Las Acacias.
20 esplendidos carneros Rambouillet Argentino, animales del mas puro origen.
Cuando ha llegado a fuerza de largos años de estudios y grandes sacrificios pecuniarios a producir el verdadero carnero Rambouillet Argentino, que puede decirse es el ideal y perfeccion del tipo de los Rambouillet, creemos innecesario estendernos sobre la bondad de estos moruecos, tanto mas que son tan universalmente conocidos en ambas margenes del Plata, por los innumerables criadores y estancieros que los han adquirido.
Unicamente prevenimos a nuestra clientela, que los animales de este año son tal vez superiores y sino iguales a los de los ultimos años.
El segundo lote numerado del 21 al 40 podra verse ya, en la cabaña y en nuestra casa calle Alsina 78, 4 dias antes del remate.

La glicerina siendo reconocida hoy por todos los prácticos como el mejor de los tópicos para la composicion de antisárnicos, algunos comerciantes victimas de su buena fé, ofrecen a nuestros estancieros con el falso nombre de Especifico de Glicerina, una mistura que, lo afirmamos sin temor de ser desmentidos, no es otra cosa que un menjunge de ácido carbólico impuro, y de materias inertes.
Los especificos con la base de glicerina, son como lo dicen los avisos y prospectos de esos señores comerciantes, los mejores curativos de la sarna, como gusanos, larvas, putrefaccion de pesuña (foot-root), piojillo, etc., en los animales de la especie ovina.
Por lo tanto, valiéndonos de las palabras de esos señores, podemos garantir que nuestro especifico es el mejor, pues es un Sulfo-glicérico cuya base está garantida por 70 o/o de glicerina pesando 28 grados.

Dysentery, Cholera Fever, Ague Coughs, Colds, &c.
Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne
(Ex Army Medical Staff)
IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's—See Times, July 12th 1864.
The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than
Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.
REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.
This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates health action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensive.
CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.
CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.
CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests too often fatal diseases Diphtheria Fever, Croup, Ague.
CHLORODYNE acts like a charming Diarrhoea, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.
CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.
CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer Toothache, Meningites, &c.
From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemist, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan. 5th 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 22, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London—"Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congralulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, DR COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of DR. COLLIS BROWNE S CHLORODYNE in Diarrhoea, and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhoea, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."
Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all classes."
CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J. Collis Browne or the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

ON 'CHANGE.

August 4th, 1885

Gold	39.50 o/o prem.
Cedulas A	101
Cedulas F	79½

Such a plethora of alarming rumors were spread on 'Change this morning that the gold market opened with a very bullish tendency and 2½ o/o in advance of last night's closing rates The source of all this bullish news was traced to the columns of a leading morning colleague who shook the foundations of the gold market by lengthy remarks on a fresh issue of paper money and the insinuation that the National Government would collect half of the Custom dues in gold The market is in such a state of uncertainty, and the premium is so susceptible that these reports had an immediate effect on the speculation, and operations for cash this morning opened at 42 The rising tendency of the speculation, however, was checked by the large sales of three brokers who were supposed to be selling for account of a party who bought very heavily last week. The parties in question sold such large amounts that the market closed at official hours with a falling tendency at 39 50.

Operations in gold for cash embraced 139,000 dollars; the market opened at 42, fluctuated violently, and closed at 39.50. One hundred thousand were sold for the 8th at 42 to 40. Operations for the end of the month amounted to $850.000; rates opened at 41, rose to 42, fell to 39, and closed at 39 50. Nearly three hundred thousand were sold for the end of September; operations began at 40, rose to 41, fell to 38, and closed at 39. Operations during official hours amounted to about half the business transacted yesterday morning. To judge by the aspect of affairs round the ring to-day there are heavy dealers operating for a fall, and the market shews more inclination to fall than to rise.

The following conditions of the Pellegrini agreement shew that the Syndicate were determined to get as much as they could out of the Argentine Government, but fortunately for the country the contract is now in the Minister's waste paper basket. The London bankers, it appears, were willing to sign an agreement less onerous to the Treasury and less derogatory to the Government, but the French bankers spoiled the business by their greed. The following were the principal stipulations of the agreement:—

1st—Amalgamation of the three loans into one of 42,000,000 $ m/n, or 8,400,000£.

2nd—Issue of this loan at an interval of twelve months in two Series, for account of the Government at 2½ o/o brokerage.

3rd—Hypothecation of the Custom House duties; the National Bank to receive the daily returns and to remit them monthly to the Paris syndicate.

4th—75 o/o to be minimum price of issue for account of the Argentine Government.

5th—Reimbursement of two millions sterling for account of the first series of the thirty million loan launched last year.

6th—The bankers to advance 1,700,000£ for account of the 1st series of the new loan at 5 per cent.

7th—The Argentine Government to fix legal residence in its legation near the British Government.

8th—The Argentine Government to forego the privilege of issuing another brass farthing for 18 months.

9th—The Syndicate to enjoy the privilege of fixing at leisure the most convenient date for launching the loan, of taking it over at 74 o/o if unsuccessful, or of throwing it on the London market at any price to wipe out the advances made.

10th—This contract to be declared law on the 15th August, and should this date be allowed to expire without Congress passing the law, this agreement to fall to the ground "ipso facto" and to be consigned to the waste paper basket.

The London papers were not far astray when they dubbed the Pelligrini mission the Argentine pilgrimage to Lombard Street. What was Dr Pelligrini thinking of when he signed such a contract?

All are anxious to know what the National Government will do in this emergency. Since the doors of the London bankers are closed, the Government must now make an appeal to its credit in this market. Some speculators have started the report that a new issue of paper money will be decreed, but this we very much doubt. Others expect the Executive to borrow from both National and Provincial Banks; this is equally improbable, although not impossible. Although no determination has been taken in the matter it is highly probable that Dr Pacheco will propose a home loan, the very best means to replenish the Treasury, wipe out the London advances and consolidate the floating debt. Let the Minister convert this 42 million gold loan into 50 million home loan at 7 o/o. The whole market applauds the idea and the Minister may rely on the success of the scheme. All the gold bulls pray for more paper money, but the market is against any increase in the paper currency. It was rumored to-day that the Provincial Bank would lend the Government 10 millions in exchange for the general bond on the old debts' loan, but this report looks speculative.

The following is a summary of operations effected this morning at the ring during official hours:—

Gold—
For cash 139,200 at 142-141-140.50-141 to 140.50-140-139.50
For Aug. 8th 95,000 142-141-140.50-140
For Aug. 15th 10,000 at 140.50

For Sept. 30th 265,000 at 140-141-140-139 to 139.50-139-138-138.50-139
For Oct. 31st 15,000 at 140-138
For Nov. 30th 20,000 at 138
Sales, 1,404,200

Cedulas—
For cash A 9,500 at 101
For cash F 4,400 at 79½
Sales, 13,900

The Executive is now bent on effecting another reduction of five millions sterling in the budget. The news shews the good that the failure of the loan is producing already. If this reduction is carried out, the budget for 1886 will amount to 35,000,000, not including extraordinary expenditure on public works and reimbursements to be made for account of heavy London advances. The Government ought to suspend all public works, except the City Improvements going on in this capital, and rest on its oars until the financial storm passes.

The Cedula market ruled dull to-day. A few thousand A and F changed hands for cash and 101 and 78½ respectively. The exchange market continues firm at 46¾-⅞d. The money market is easy, but gold is scarce. Government bills are now freely offered at 8 o/o, and the demand has fallen off. Last week those bills were discounted under 8 o/o, but large amounts are now offered at this ate.

Advices from the Coronel Suarez district announce that camps down there are yet very dry, but that both sheep and cattle are in good condition. The severe frosts for the last fortnight have much injured the grasses. A leading estanciero, who possesses a splendid property adjoining the Curumalan principality, has sold some "novillos" at 17 m/n per head. These animals were native stock, and the price speaks their condition and the quality of the camp on which they were fed.

The Capitania has sent a small steamer with men to raise the J. B. Say which foundered up river in a collision with another vessel. The J. B. Say has 2,500 quebracho sleepers of Mr Castilla on board. As she is rather a large steamer she will give much trouble and many consider her a total loss. She formerly plied between this port and Bahia Blanca.

The representative of the Transandine Telegraph Company has applied to the Minister of Finance for 5,316$78 payment for official telegrams transmitted in the first four months of the year.

The whole market applauds the idea of launching a home loan to meet the difficulties of the national exchequer, and all hope that the Minister of Finance will employ this means to raise funds rather than increase the issue of paper money. Seven o/o home bonds would be taken up immediately in this market, and would migrate rapidly to London. The Hard Dollar Bonds of the Government, a 6 o/o issue, are in demand on 'Change at par, and the Government may rely on a brisk demand for a 7 o/o stock, guaranteed by the railways. It would be a case of history repeating itself, as these railway bonds would go to London as fast as the Treasury Bills of 1876. Our issue of paper money, on the other hand, would be ruinous, and the entire market opposes the idea, as a fresh supply of paper would bring about a depreciation that might put gold at 100 o/o premium. The Minister of Finance knows the market, and is well acquainted with its atmosphere, and dislike of any further issue of paper, and we do not for a moment doubt that he will consult the interests of all by opposing all measures that might tend to a further depreciation of the currency. Let the Government launch a large home loan, but refrain from issuing another dollar, and the feeling in the market is strong in this regard that gold would go down 5 o/o if the Government made a declaration that the paper currency would not be increased during this presidential term, at least.

About half a million dollars were sold during afterhours. The market opened weak at 39, but became firm and ran up to 40, falling subsequently to 38½, and closing at 39, sellers for the 30th, and at 38½ buyers for September.

We extract the following from Messrs G & C Kreglinger's important Market Review under date Antwerp, 30th June, 1885:—

Hides—

We have passed a very quiet month; however, we have no change to quote in the prices of shorthaired saladero ox, the production of which has not been exaggerated. For Buenos Aires matadero ox, on the contrary, of which we hold a fair stock, somewhat lower prices would be accepted, same as for winterhaired hides in general, which are likely to be plentiful.

To arrive, the Liebig cargo per Merlin, 11,000 ox, 64 lb Span., was sold at fs.71 (6 13/16d) for hides under 55 lb Engl., and at fs.75 (7⅛d) for those of 55 lb Engl. and over.

Besides ex steamer Hogarth 5,000 Villa Colon ox, 58 lb Span., 2,000 Concordia ox, 63 lb Span., and 1,000 Sacra ox, 58 lb Span., changed hands at fs.70 (6¾d) round.

According to telegrams received on 15th inst, this year's killings, so far amount to 1,571,000 heads of cattle against 1,424,000 in 1884, being an overproduction of 147,000—as compared with last year.

Shorthaired cow of 14-25 kilos have suffered a sharp decline of fs.3-4 (¼d to ⅜d) and at such reduced rates, a fair amount of business has been done.

Dry hides are very much neglected and must be quoted about fs.5 lower.

Tallow—

Has continued very quiet, throughout the month and transactions were confined to 106 pipes beef, that were sold at secret price. Nominal value fs.75-74 (10s 11d to 30s 6d) for beef, and fs.74-73 (30s 6d to 30s 1d) for mutton. Stock, 811 pipes and 306 hds. beef and 47 pipes and 62 hds. mutton, against 368 pipes and 22 hds. beef in 1884.

Wool—

Sales, 3,503 bales R. Plate.
Stock, 49,371 bales R. Plate against 39,989 bales R. Plate in 1884.

There was at the beginning of last month some slight spurt in the market, and prices looked as if they had touched bottom. Since then the very unfavorable impression caused by the progress of the London sales has shaken confidence, and deterred buyers.

The chief inquiry has been for small wools, suitable for carding purposes and chiefly for secondary lambs, which are now selling on the basis of fr.0.95 (4⅝d) to fr.1 (4⅞d) for 30 per cent yield, at which price they are as cheap, if not cheaper, than the corresponding quality of noils. Other quantities only give now and then occasion to a sale, and we find that chiefly Montevidean wools of medium quality and the corresponding qualities in B. Ayres wools, suitable for combing purposes, are neglected.

We do not change quotations at foot, most sales having been effected at the parity of last auction with this difference, that whilst at the beginning of the month, the full parity was paid and occasionally more, prices have shown lately some symptoms of weakness.

Our next public sales will open on the 28th or 29th July.

The following statistical records present some interest. Shipments from the Argentine Republic showed, according to the latest telegraphic advices, an increase over last year of 35,000 bales (282,000 bales against 247,000 bales)

Of these 35,000 bales about 13,000 have been distributed on France and 17,000 bales on Germany, the remaining 5,000 bales on sundry ports, chiefly English.

Total shipments from Montevideo amounted on 31st May, 1885, to 56,000 bales, showing a falling off against last year of 2,500 bales. The total increase of shipments from the R. Plate represents consequently up to date a quantity of 32,500 bales to which must be added this year's increase in sheepskins, which may be valued approximately at 10,000 bales or the equivalent of about 5,000 bales wool in the grease.

On the other hand France had imported from England up to 31st May about 20 millions lb less colonial wool than last year, (being equivalent of 50,000 bales Australian wool) and a surplus of 1,200,000 lb English or Irish wool; imports from same quarter to Germany, Holland and Belgium show for the same period a slight increase over 1884 in colonial wools (about 60 millions against 59 millions).

Direct imports from Australia into France via Marseilles show a slight decrease this year, but this difference may be balanced by an increase of imports via Antwerp.

Deliveries of tops in the North of France up to 31st May amounted to an aggregate of about 20 millions of kilos against 17,700,000 kilos last year, difference 2,300,000 kilos or equivalent of 19,000 bales R. Plate. In the main France has received this year less Merino wool, whilst the general outlets, including of course, common wools, have been larger. The trade returns for exports of woollen fabrics show this year, compared with last, for the 5 first months of the year, as far as France and Belgium are concerned, a satisfactory increase, whilst for Great Britain, there is on the contrary a not unimportant dificiency. The official returns for Germany published up to the end of April, shew about equal figures for both years as far as export of woollen material is concerned.
